

HISTORY OF THE FIRM

The firm was originally established in 1963 “to provide its clients with the creative abilities, imagination and technical knowledge essential to sensitive Project Design and Site Planning.” After over forty years of growth and change, this legacy continues to be the core of our mission.

Highlights

1963 Founded Rye, NY

Peter G. Rolland & Associates

1967 First published: Architectural Record

1970 First national award: ASLA Merit Award

1971 First major exhibit: Museum of Modern Art

1971 First international commission: Japan

1973 Shavaun Towers joins firm

1980 International design competition winner:
The Parliament House, Australia

1981 Office established in New Haven, CT

Shavaun Towers, Managing Partner

1983 Robert J. Golde joins firm

1987 Offices merge and name changes to

Rolland/Towers

1993 Offices consolidate in New Haven

1996 Robert J. Golde named partner

1997 ASLA Award of Excellence

2000 Name changes to

Towers|Golde

2006 Office relocates to new, expanded studio

